GUIDANCE FOR THE CONDUCT OF RELATIONS
WITH THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

On June 5, the President announced measures the U.S. would take in response to the violent suppression of peaceful demonstrations in China:

- suspension of all government-to-government sales and commercial exports of weapons;
- suspension of visits between U.S. and Chinese military leaders;
- sympathetic review of requests by Chinese students (and other Chinese citizens) in the United States to extend their stay; and
- the offer of humanitarian and medical assistance through the Red Cross to those injured during the assault.

The President stated that we would review other aspects of our bilateral relationship as events in China continue to unfold.

At the same time, the President made clear the importance of preserving the relationship with China, which is in our long range strategic interest.

It is important that all actions involving China taken by U.S. Government agencies be consistent with policy. The Policy Coordination Committee (East Asia) is the appropriate mechanism for consideration of these issues as they arise. Time sensitive issues that cannot await PCC review should be referred to the Executive Secretary of the Department of State.

MEMORANDUM FOR HEADS OF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

SUBJECT: Guidance for the Conduct of Relations with the People's Republic of China

Attached for your information is a statement of guidance for the conduct of relations with the People's Republic of China. Given the broad scope of United States relations with China, this memorandum is being sent to a large number of Departments and Agencies. Please ensure that the relevant components of your organization receive a copy. No activities concerning programs involving China under the control or guidance of your organization should be undertaken without prior notification of the Executive Secretary of the Department of State.
